

A Reflection from Fr. Joseph

Our reading this week begins with a wonderful little story about the prophet Elisha from the Second Book of Kings. If you remember, Elisha was Elijah's protégé. On one of Elisha's journeys, he came to the city of Shuman where he was warmly received by a generous lady of the city. She knew that he carried the presence of God's prophetic Spirit, so she invited him to stay with her and her husband anytime he was passing through the area. Elisha wanted to do something for her in return. He found out that she and her husband did not have any sons and that childbearing time was over. This was a serious situation because it was up to sons to care for their parents in their declining years. Elisha prophesied that God would reward her by giving her a son. And the prophecy was fulfilled.

This is a beautiful story of generosity and the love of God. You might remember a similar event in the Book of Genesis. Three men on a journey came upon Abraham's tent. Abraham treated them with complete respect, welcoming them and providing for their needs. In response, they promised him that his wife, Sara, would have a baby within a year. She was inside the tent and heard this. Knowing that she was beyond childbearing years, she, literally, started laughing. But the travelers were actually angels. And in a year, Abraham and Sarah had a baby they named Isaac, child of laughter.

Hospitality was one of the great virtues of the Bible. The ancients believed that each person should be welcomed as though one were welcoming God himself. Jesus moves this virtue into Christian times in today's Gospel, "Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me. Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and whoever receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward. And whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple - amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward."

The virtue of hospitality is far more than being a good host at a dinner party. Hospitality means encountering the presence of God in others, usually in those whom we least expect. Sometimes we get so self-absorbed in our own expressions of spirituality, that we miss the presence of the Lord, as he stands right before us, in our family or as he knocks on the door of our homes and our lives through other people. For example, we can make the mistake of thinking that our expressions of spirituality, be they within the Catholic faith or within the general context of Christianity, are exclusive. If another person doesn't pray as we pray, express the presence of the Almighty as we express his presence, we might miss the Lord as he is standing right before us in a person that we least expect to meet him.

The virtue of hospitality is the virtue of recognizing the presence of God in others and nourishing this presence. When we practice this virtue, then the stranger among us is no longer a stranger, but a member of the family, more than welcome, like Elisha, to enjoy a room in our house, our Church. Today we pray for an openness to God's presence in ways we least expect. We pray for the virtue of hospitality.

"...whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me." Matthew 10:38

Pope Benedict XVI said "The world offers you comfort. But you were not made for comfort, you were made for greatness". "Comfort" puts me first. "Picking up your cross and following Jesus" puts God and others first. Why settle for comfort when you can achieve greatness! Pick up your cross, ask Jesus for guidance on using your gifts and live the life God intended for you!
